United States Navy Transport Solace

The United States naval transport Solace, en route for Manila via Honolulu and Guam, arrived yesterday at 3 p. m. from San Francisco.

She has aboard 320 men of the Third Battalion U. S. Marine Corps, 49 officers and about a thousand tons naval stores for Guam and Manila.

The Solace left Mare Island at 7:30 on the morning of the 11th inst., stopping at San Francisco long enough to take on mail, she immediately put to sea. Rough weather was experienced the second day out and nearly every man on board was seasick; otherwise the men are in fine health and anxious to reach their destination.

The men of the Third Battalion have been particularly fortunate as regards their transportation both on land and sea. Coming across the continent from Washington, they traveled first class in every respect, and on the Solace they have a remarkably clean and roomy ship. As each company has its individual mess, they live uncommonly well.

A few of the marines and Lieutenants Jonas, Branch and Low will remain at Guam. A complete saw mill outfit, provisions, pipe and ammunition will probably be the most welcome as the accounts from Guam stated a scarcity of food on the island.

Officers on the Solace of the Third Battalion of marines are: Major L. W. T. Waller, commanding, Adjutant J. C. Breckenridge, Quartermaster W. McCreary; Company A, Captain H. L. Draper, First Lieut. L. Feland, Second Lieut. F. M. Wise, Jr., W. L. Jolly; Company B, First Lieut. E. A. Jonas, First Lieut. W. H. Clifford, Second Lieut. S. Elliot; Company C, Captain P. M. Bannon, First Lieut. H. I. Bearss, W. W. Low, Second Lieut. N. G. Barton; Company D, First Lieut. L. M. Gulick, W. H. Parker, Second Lieut. L. McLittle.

Officers of the U. S. S. Solace and officers assigned for duty at Manila are as follows: Commander A. Dunlap, Lieut. Comdr. F. W. Coffin, Lieut. J. M. Pickrell, Ensign Wat T. Cluverius, Surgeon W. H. Rush, P. A. Surgeon Chas. P. Bragg, Paymaster J. S. Phillips, Captain R. E. Walker, U. S. M. C., War. Machinist J. W. Murray, War. Machinist C. H. Hosung, Pay Clerk F. M. Phillips. Officers, temporary duty—Lieutenants James H. Oliver, Robert F. Lopez, Miles C. Gorgas, Blas C. Sampson, Chester M. Knepper, Wm. H. McGrann (J. G.), Andre H. Proctor (J. G.), Ensigns Arthur MacArthur, Harland P. Perrill, Leonard R. Sargent, David F. Boyd, Oscar D. Duncan, Naval Cadets Farmer Morrison, Z. H. Madison, Surgeon Oliver D. Norton, Asst. Surgeon Richmond G. Holcomb, Acting Boatswain John McGrath, First Lieut. Jas. W. Broatch, U. S. M. C., Officers, passengers—Lieut. Comdr. Chas. A. Adams, Clayton S. Richman, Aaron Ward, Walter Cowles, Asst. Paymasters F. P. Sackett, Cuthbert J. Cleborne, Civil Engineer H. R. Stanford.

The Solace is at the Pacific Mail dock and will probably get away Wednesday morning. She will take on about 500 tons of coal.

JOHN PAUL JONES' GRAVE.

New York, Nov. 5.—A cable to the Tribune from Paris says: An archaeological discovery, which settles a disputed question and which cannot fail to arouse the patriotic interest of Americans, is announced today in a report made to Ambassador Porter by M. de Ricardy. He is the Parisian antiquary who succeeded in finding the long missing remains of Turgot, and who has for several months been engaged in researches to locate the remains of John Paul Jones, the naval hero of the war of independence. All efforts to ascertain the burial place of John Paul Jones have hitherto been fruitless, owing to the administrative disorganization that prevailed at the outbreak of the French revolution, to the intolerant laws and municipal ordinances in force before the revocation of the edict of Nantes, which tyrannically regulated the burial of Protestants down to minute details, but which failed to accord them official recognition; and to the destruction of all necrological records of Paris by fire during the Commune period, in May, 1871.

The report of M. de Ricardy, each statement of which is supported by authentic documentary evidence, establishes in a manner which, in the opinion of Parisian archaeologists, amounts to a certainty, that the remains of John Paul Jones repose in a graveyard discontinued as such in 1793, where they were buried on July 20, 1792. It is also satisfactorily established that they were never exhumed. The grave is covered with a broken down building, occupied by a photographer. Search will be made for the body.

It is not necessary to introduce Mr. W. Y. Itow to people who patronize art in Honolulu. To those who may not know, it would perhaps be as well to say that he has been in the employ of King Bros. for close on to ten years, where evidences of his skill are always to be seen. He works in oil, water color, or pastel, with equal facility. His studies in Hawaiian Fish have been copied and recopied by less skillful hands, which is evidence sufficient that he is a master in still life. His studio is still with
